

Special Points of Interest:

Coming Soon:

Homegrown Organic Racism: A new play about St. Louis racism

Showing on :

Jan. 8,9,10
Phyllis Whatley
Heritage Center

Jan. 15,16,17
The Rowan
Community Center

Jan. 22,23,24
COLT Safety Building

Jan. 29,30,31
The Ethical Society

Tickets are $10.00

Call us to get your tickets today at 314.436.7628!

www.dapstl.org

Email: info@dapstl.org

2009 Diversity Dinner

Thank you to our 2009 Diversity Dinner sponsors, attendees, and cultural performers. The evening was wonderfully entertaining and we thank all of you so much for making it a remarkable event. We had over 200 people attend the dinner and watch seven performances from all over the world! We also want to thank all the generous companies who donated to our Silent Auction this year.

2009 Dinner Sponsors Included:

$7500

Saint Louis
Science Center
Wells Fargo Advisors

$2,000

St. Louis Rams
Webster University
Washington University
in St. Louis

$1,000

Ameren UE
Bank of America
Brown Shoe Company
Cardinals Care
Edward Jones
McCarthy Building
Companies, Inc.
Mercer Health & Benefits

$350

Missouri Botanical Garden
Monsanto
PepsiAmericas
St. Louis Children's Hospital
UniGroup, Inc.
Brown School
of Social Work
Insight St. Louis
LIFT
Missouri History Museum
Network for Indian Professionals
Pulaski Bank

New Diversity Sports Poster!

We are excited to present the 2010 Diversity Sports Poster, sponsored by Wells Fargo Advisors, featuring Yadier Molina, Oshiomogho Atogwe and Erik Johnson.

To pick up your copy, please email info@dapstl.org!

DAP's Executive Director wins 2009 Local Hero Award

Reena Hajat has been honored with the Bank of America Local Hero Award. The Award comes with a $5,000 donation from Bank of America.

2009
Diversity
Dinner
Pictures