Third Annual Diversity Dinner a Success!!!

DAP held their Third Annual Diversity Dinner at the Saint Louis Science Center James S. McDonnell Planetarium on Thursday, November 4. The unforgettable evening was filled with networking, ethnic entertainment and dinner under the stars. Emcees Elliot Weiler, KTVI, and Derek Laney, Mind Mastery, teamed up to host the much-anticipated event. Special guest, Jim Weddle, Managing Partner at Edward Jones, also took the stage to provide a few valuable remarks about the importance of diversity and inclusion in St. Louis businesses.

The Annual Diversity Dinner is DAP's largest fundraiser and most substantial source of funding for year-long initiatives including youth programs and community outreach. This year DAP raised $41,000, which will increase diversity awareness in St. Louis schools and businesses. The Fourth Annual Diversity Dinner will be held November 3, 2011.

The Third Annual Diversity Dinner would not have been possible without Sponsorship support.

Give Respect, Get Respect Field Trip to the Holocaust Museum

The Give Respect, Get Respect collaborative program between DAP and Edward Jones will devote its third session to focusing on religious intolerance by taking a field trip to the Holocaust Museum on January 12. Teachers, students and Edward Jones Associates alike have been enthusiastic about embracing diversity and inclusion and demonstrated remarkable progress throughout the first two sessions. The first session inspired participants to better understand the meaning of diversity and encouraged them to further discussion and an Paraquod provided an session with disability training, explore their own identity through games, appearance from Playback Theatre. enlightening opportunity at the second which allowed individuals to experience unfamiliar challenges through hands on activities.
